

We have an active role towards accessing sufficient and safe water, especially that in Lebanon we are under the poverty line in terms of how much water is available per year and per capita

A responsible citizen

Subscribes to the water service and pays the fees that cover operational costs

Water pumping

Water distribution

Water treatment and testing

Water storage

Wastewater treatment

Conserves water in both quantity and quality

- Practices eco-tips in agricultural, industrial and domestic sectors
- Treats wastewater before disposing of it in nature

Communicates and cooperates with water establishments

- Attends townhall meetings
- Reports problems, leakages, and water shortages
- Reaches out to water establishments through hotlines, social media, apps ...
