To Be or Not to Be a Good Citizen

Giving Access to Equal Medical Care to the Unprivileged Children MOU Signing to Establish a "Social Pediatric Clinic"

As a response to the disastrous aftermaths of Beirut explosion and to take part in the national efforts to overcome its detrimental effects, as well as the economic meltdown and the multidimensional crises the country is witnessing, "Hotel-Dieu de France" and "Fondation Diane" recently signed a Memorandum of Understanding to establish a "Social Pediatric Clinic" dedicated to providing the underprivileged children with medicinal care, physical health and psychosocial services, at no cost, with a nominal registration fee. ## Tackling Waste from its different perspectives

A Zoom Webinar, Organized by CEEDD and AUF

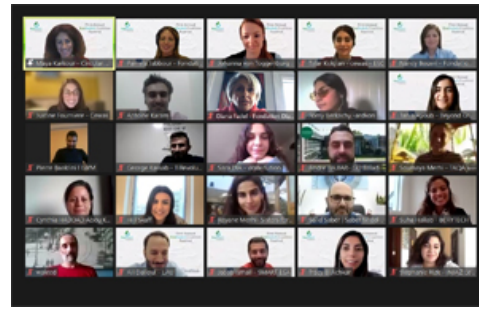

The poster features a large plastic bottle floating in the ocean, with its reflection visible below the waterline. The background is a sunset or sunrise over the sea. At the top, there are logos for AUF (Agence Universitaire de la Francophonie), le cnam, USJ (Université Saint-Joseph de Beyrouth), and Fondation Diane CEEDD. The text on the poster includes the dates '9 et 10 décembre 2021' and 'EN FORMAT HYBRIDE'. A red banner at the bottom contains the title 'Webinaire LES DÉCHETS, UN MARQUEUR DE NOS SOCIÉTÉS : QUE NOUS APPRENNENT-ILS?' and the registration link 'Inscription : <https://bit.ly/3cO3lsv>'.

The Chair of "Fondation Diane" for Education in Eco-citizenship and Sustainable Development (CEEDD) and the "Agence Universitaire de la Francophonie" (AUF) are proud to invite you to a webinar taking place on Dec 9th and 10th, 2021 to discuss with researchers and professionals the latest challenges, proposed solutions, and an overview on waste. ## Growing the Green Ecosystem

Organizing the "First Annual EcoSwitch Festival" for Green Enterprises

Our "First Annual EcoSwitch Festival for Eco-entrepreneurs in Lebanon" was a real success! Organized by "Fondation Diane" and the "EcoSwitch Coalition", the festival welcomed over 65 online participants and 80 people at the networking event. It was so refreshing and motivating to see young and not-so-young green entrepreneurs meet, mingle, chat, learn, exchange, explore and even look into collaboration options! Read more

Helping Women Overcome Domestic Violence

MOU Signing on the "Gender Based Violence" Training of Trainers

Woman empowerment and gender equality are at the center of our mission. In this context, the Chair of "Fondation Diane" for Education on Eco-citizenship and Sustainable Development (CEEDD) signed a Memorandum of Understanding with the United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA) to develop a Gender Based Violence Training of Trainers program.

The MOU signing took place on 16 November 2021 at USJ, in the presence of the Chair holder, Prof. Fadi El Hage, the UNFPA representatives, Mrs. Asma Kurdahi and Mrs. Nicia el Dennawi, in addition to the Professor Salim Daccache s.j., Rector of USJ. Read more

Following Environmental Awareness Progress in the World COP26: Any Progress in the Climate Change Status?

The world is calling for a climate emergency! Limiting global warming to 1.5 Celsius degrees is the goal and the urgent need that the world leaders stressed on during the “2021 United Nations Climate Change Conference” - more commonly referred to as COP26 – that was held recently in Glasgow.

We should never stop fighting climate change, the main cause behind the wildfires taking place locally and globally. Together, we can save our planet! Read more

Reviving Citizens' Motivation Organizing the Independence Competition

Despite this critical time of crisis, “Fondation Diane” launched, in the occasion of our independence day, an activation over its social media platforms to restore to the Lebanese the lost vigor of a people who knew once how to win their independence 78 years ago. The activation was very interactive and the participants’ feedback was very positive, especially that it included as give-away “Kulluna Lil Watan”, the 1 st Book of Revolution in Images, by the Founder and President of “Fondation Diane”, Mrs. Diana Fadel.
